

This is true progress!! It brings true meaning to the presidents comments on broadband for everyone. The only connection available in the area I live is dial up and satellite (inferior and over priced connection). The speed and pricing of bpl seems very fair (speed vs pricing). I only hope this progress happens in my area.